

The Resurrection of Christ Assures the Resurrection of the Redeemed

1 Corinthians 15:1-49 (NKJV)

Acts 17:32 (NKJV)

1 Corinthians 15:12 (NKJV)

- I. The resurrection of Christ is a _____ fact. vv. 1-11
- Taught by the Old Testament _____ vv. 1-5
Psalm 16:10 (NLT)
 - _____ accounts of the Lord after His resurrection vv. 5-11
- II. The _____ conclusion if there is no resurrection vv. 12-19
- Your _____ is meaningless. vv. 12-14
 - The Apostles are _____ teachers. vv. 15-16
 - There is no _____ for us or our loved ones who have died. vv. 17-18
 - The deniers are right and we are to be _____.
- III. The _____ reasoning about the resurrection vv. 20-28
- Jesus Christ is the first in terms of _____ to be resurrected. v. 20
 - _____ comes upon everyone because of the first Adam. vv. 21-23
 - _____ life comes to all who are in Christ, because of the obedience of the second Adam. vv. 21-23
- IV. Some _____ thoughts in light of the resurrection vv. 29-34
- Why do some of you participate in the pagan practice of _____ baptism, if there is no resurrection? v. 29
 - Why did Paul and those with him put their lives at _____, if there was no resurrection? vv. 30—32a
 - Do you live as you please with no _____ if this life is all there is? v. 32b
 - Are you careful who you surround yourself with as you anticipate the _____ return?
- V. Paul's illustrations of the believer's resurrected _____ vv. 35-49
- The illustration of planting a _____ vv. 35-38
 - The illustration of _____ bodies v. 39
 - The illustration of _____ bodies vv. 40-41

Note- The resurrection body is not a reconstruction of the body, but a continuation of the body, but with an obvious and glorious difference, just like the seed. vv. 42-49